FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tampa, Fla. – Local travel agent Tammy Levent has been nominated for a Travvy Award in the category of Most Innovative Travel Agent for the second year in a row!

Earlier this year, Tammy Levent won the 2015 TRAVVY award as the Most Innovative Travel Agent. Since entering the race for the award in 2014 Tammy has proven that she still is the most innovative agent in the travel industry. By continuing to use her strategic partnerships to create new travel trends and new travel experience opportunities Tammy has raised the bar just a little bit higher in less than a year! Because of this, it's no surprise that Tammy has been nominated for a Travvy Award in the category of Most Innovative Travel Agent for the second year in a row!

The annual Travvy Awards, presented by travAlliancemedial, recognize the highest standards of excellence in the industry today and honor travel companies, travel products, travel agencies and destinations for their outstanding achievement.

How the voting process works: Voting will take place at <http://vote.travvyawards.com/> beginning at 12 a.m. on Thursday, September, 10, 2015. About Tammy Levent

Tammy got her first taste of entrepreneurship while running an international shipping business at age 17. Nearly 20 years ago she founded Elite Travel and has proven herself to be an entrepreneur that can survive and thrive against all odds. Her expertise in business has led to her contribution in the #1 best- selling book "Women Who Mean Business," and she is the founder of T.A.S.K. – the Travel Agent's Success Kit – to teach travel agents and entrepreneurs how to succeed through strategic partnerships, innovative marketing and out of the box branding.

Out of nothing Tammy Levent built Elite Travel into a successful travel agency that has been in business nearly two decades. When there was no money for advertising she came up with creative and exciting ways to get her company's name out there and unlike most agents she helps her competitors. Tammy Levent should be the 2015 Travvy Awards Most Innovative Travel Agent! Vote for her today at <http://vote.travvyawards.com/>!
